EXPLANATION OF WAIVERS

Although the resolution waives all points of order against consideration of H.R. 6169, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

Although the resolution waives all points of order against provisions in H.R. 6169, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

Although the resolution waives all points of order against the amendment in the nature of a substitute to H.R. 6169, printed in part A of this report, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

Although the resolution waives all points of order against consideration of H.R. 8, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

Although the resolution waives all points of order against provisions in H.R. 8, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

The waiver of all points of order against the amendment in the nature of a substitute to H.R. 8, printed in part B of this report, could include a waiver of Section 311 of the Congressional Budget Act, which prohibits consideration of legislation that would cause revenues to be less than the level of total revenues for the first fiscal year or for the total of that first fiscal year and the ensuing fiscal years for which allocations are provided, and clause 10 of rule XXI, prohibiting the consideration of a bill if it has the net effect of increasing mandatory spending over the first five- or ten-year period. Section 503(b) of the House passed budget resolution (H. Con. Res. 112) contemplates House consideration of specific legislation which would be subject to an adjustment of allocation by the Chairman of Committee on the Budget. While the Rules Committee has been informed by the Budget Committee that the underlying measure meets those requirements and would therefore qualify for an adjustment under Section 503, the Budget Committee has indicated that substitute printed in part B of this report may not qualify due to the inclusion of tax credits not contemplated under Section 503. Should the substitute not qualify under section 503, the amendment would be in violation of Section 311 of the Budget Act and clause 10 of rule XXI, and the waivers would be applicable.
