

Karen Schoellkopf is the Founder, CEO of Leap Fund. Prior to Leap Fund, she spent 10 years in the tech industry, shaping B2B and B2C products. She is a Fellow at Sterling Network, whose mission is to enhance economic mobility across NYC, as well as a Fellow / Member of the Good Work Guild, focused on economic security and labour-market transforming technologies. She received her MFA from the School of Visual Arts, and her BA from Binghamton University.

To date, she has spoken about benefits cliffs and FinTech solutions to policy failures at: Benefits Cliffs, ECS Forum on Justice and Opportunity (2019, 2020, 2021); Benefits Cliffs w/ a User Centered Lens, CirclesUSA Breakthrough National Conference (2021); Summit on the Economics and Policies of Cliffs in the Social Safety Net and Economic Mobility, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta (2019); Fintech Fixes to Policy Problems, NYS CDFI Conference (2019); and Unlocking Underserved Markets panel, Ideas42 Behavioral Summit (2018).